Bar,
It sure has been fun on Laramie St. all the past year.
We also had fun together in French. I wish you the best of luck in the coming year.
I hope you have fun in and a happy new year.

Vicki,
I'm so glad I met you this year.
We're really going to have fun this summer. I hope we can go to the beach and have a riot.

to the beach and have a nice time. When Dobby gets back, you'll will have to double with us, you and Ron. I know Ron really likes you and you will have his ring any day now. I hope you will have the best luck in future, you are a real cute doll, stay that way and don't change.

Hi Bev.

Hope you're enjoying your stay at OHS. So bad you got stuck here huh! Foreword Sorry this is such a mess. Good luck.
Best Wishes.

Memorable pleasures from a school year come from a combination of sources. The founding of the school is built on administration and faculty who are the backbone of OHS. The individual students help to make the school stronger by participation in organizations. Not to be passed over is competition, which helps in building the school name. Although the work involved is great, the results, which make up the students' rewards and satisfactions, are found in special events.

This year will never be forgotten. Students will never forget the tragic assassination of their thirty-fifth president, John F. Kennedy, or the new addition of classrooms to the three-year-old building. In addition, special moments in 1964 can be singled out when many hours were spent on homework, organizations, and, of course, annual events such as Homecoming, Sno-Days and all-school plays. Seeping into the school year were fads--jersey shirts, grey tee shirts, cranberry sweaters and knee highs. Students danced to their favorite song, "Surfin' Bird," and England's Beatles were really "in."

Each school year has its special meanings. This year, as an entirety, provided for each student his measure of dedication . . . enthusiasm . . . participation . . . competition . . . individualism . . .

Dickie. It has been great knowing you and lotsa fun. Have fun this summer and be a good gal. Love
Dickie

(K.)

Bev,

I'm glad I got to know you this years. It's been a lot of fun being a Senior hasn't it. Remember when we went to Starlite and you lost your money ~~dog~~. The people behind us must have thought we were nuts. I wish you all the luck in the future. Be good and don't do anything I wouldn't do.

Remember me Always,
Karen

Dear Mr. and Mrs. [unclear]
I am writing to you to let you know about our son and daughter. Our son is 17 years old and our daughter is 15 years old. They are both doing well in school and are very good students.

Best regards always,

Betty

Bew - I could just put "Ditto" to what you wrote in mine but you are nicer than a lot of fun me so Good Luck in English haven't + it's been fun to have you here. However you have fun now and in all the years to come.
Best of my luck
Chad

Drew,
It was so nice that you moved around here and came to Osses. I hope you liked our school. I liked having you in my French class and getting to know you. Good luck - luck in the future
always Nancy.

Bew - It was nice to have you in English. Stay as sweet as you are and lots of luck. Take care of yourself. I wish that you will have and lots of fun.

Chris

Bew,
French has been a lot of fun hasn't it. although with Jorell, Sifra and Terry you couldn't get a word in edgewise
Best of luck to you

'64 ORIOLE

1917 • John Fitzgerald Kennedy • 1963

"Ask not what your country can do for you . . . Ask what you can do for your country."

" . . . (I)n death he gave of himself to us. He gave us of a good heart from which laughter came. He gave us of a profound wit, from which a great leadership emerged. He gave us of a kindness and a strength fused into a human courage to seek peace without fear."

"He gave us of his love that we, in turn, might give. He gave that we might give of ourselves, that we might give to one another until there would be no room, no room at all, for the bigotry, the hatred, the prejudice and the arrogance which converged in that moment of horror to strike him down."

. . . So, in respect to his memory, we, the class of 1964, dedicate ourselves to his high ideals and the tasks he set before our generation.

--quotation from the eulogy by Sen. Mike Mansfield, November 24, 1963.

School days pass quickly, as Seniors look toward their futures. Days of memorable events, long-lasting friendships, and those many hours of studying we must not forget, in addition to the many nights and days we devoted to our favorite activities. The Senior Class of 1964, advised by Mrs. Rogge, is a very busy class but also a very studious one.

Candy sales were the main project of the year, as it is for every senior class. Profits brought in by the sales are used for the Senior banquet and trip.

Another fund-raising project was Homecoming. Preparations for this senior-sponsored special event begin with the evening coronation and pep fest. The following day features the afternoon parade, in which the Class of '64 has taken the "Best Float Trophy" for three consecutive years. Following the parade are the football game and the annual Homecoming dance. 1963 Homecoming events proved to be very rewarding to the Seniors and will be long remembered by them.

Council Personifies the Student Voice

ORGANIZING STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVITIES are officers Cheri Dorn, Vice-President; Roselle Conley, President; and Nancy Lindberg, Secretary-Treasurer

Active, energetic students have made student council an effective organization.

It is the council's responsibility to aid the administration with student problems and school policy. Working with the administration, the council succeeded in getting nine dance days for the school year and subsequently set up a committee to regulate these dances. Representing the student body, the council arranged to meet with the faculty to present student views on final exams.

For student enjoyment, the council sponsored Sno-Days and the Homecoming Parade. A $100 scholarship, taken from Student Council funds, was granted to a deserving senior.

The council again served the community by sponsoring a Christmas drive for a needy family and giving them a Christmas dinner. They also aided the flood stricken children of the South with a clothing drive.

Debaters Dispute Pertinent Controversies

VETERAN DEBATER Sheryl Osborne assuredly presents the facts in her case.

This year high school debaters across the nation pondered the topic "Resolved; That Social Security benefits should be extended to include complete medical care."

For the first time in several years, Osseo debaters had a class during the school day. This aided them in preparation for tournaments and helped them in extracurricular speech activities. The idea of having a class was like a magnet. Nineteen students went out debate, including sixteen in the class and three more students participating after school.

This was an active year for debaters, who took part in several tournaments on Saturdays and Mondays. The success of Mr. Halter's debaters was high over that of past years.

ACTIVE DEBATE offers challenge to both sides.

Friendly Foreign Relations

Raising money to enable a foreign exchange student to come to Osseo for a year and to send one of our students abroad is the main objective of the American Field Service Club. Funds were obtained through sponsoring such activities as an annual movie for students, a Christmas "Holly Hop" and a mid-winter AFS weekend.

Passing local eliminations and screening by the New York office, Heidi Lindquist was sent abroad to Turkey for twelve weeks. Cristina Carrio, a petite, dark-haired, friendly "ambassador" from Uruguay, became our return student. OHS students combined efforts to make her year an enjoyable and unforgettable one of studying and living in Osseo.

Under the direction of Mrs. Rogge, AFS aims at promoting further school interest and good will in foreign lands.

ORGANIZATIONAL HEADS of AFS are President Pat Hanson, Vice-President Roselle Conley, Secretary Marsha Christiansen, and Treasurer Bonnie Berndt

CLUB MEMBERS DECIDE plans for future AFS get-together

Promoted by Cristina and A.F.S.

Cristina Carrio, popular American Field Service student from Montevideo, Uruguay, finds the United States, and specifically Osseo, a very interesting experience. Cristina lives with the Bob Berndt family in Osseo, and she has enjoyed her American sister, Bonnie, who shared the senior activities with her. Cristina is active this year on the Student Council, in A.F.S., in G.A.A., and in speaking to school and civic organizations.

American Field Service offers Osseo students the opportunities in the area of better international understanding, and Cristina's representation of her country has contributed much to the 1964 school year. Cristina is the sixth A.F.S. student attending Osseo. After an extended tour to New York and Washington D.C., Cristina returns to Uruguay in August where she will begin her first year of college study.

FIRST TIME on the tramp, Cristina finds GAA one of her greatest interests.

AT HOMECOMING CORONATION
Cristina was chosen as an Honorary Attendant, where she was escorted by Harlen Heyer.

Polyglots Further Language Interests

For students who like to speak French to other students of German or Latin, Polyglots is the club to join. Polyglots, which means "many languages" to the informed, serves as a meeting place for language students to learn about each other's language and country.

To start the year off, Heidi Lindquist, exchange student to Turkey, took the group on a tour of Turkey through slides and description. At the first big social gathering, the annual Christmas party, Polyglot members sang carols in three languages, accompanied by the German band. Skits portrayed the customs and stories of the Romans, Germans, and French, while the refreshments held a foreign taste.

All the officers and cabinet worked together to fill out the year with the celebration of the club's own Mardi Gras and competition in Roman games.

"JOYEUX NOËL" is wished to all by cheerful French students in a humorous party skit.

POLYGLOTS GATHER, with undivided attention to skits presented in German, French and Latin.

EVENTS FOR THE YEAR are planned by Polyglot Officers Pat Munn, Vice President, Wally Huber, Treasurer, Marsha Christensen, President, and Nancy Lindberg, Secretary.

COOKIES AND GOODIES from different lands were prepared and served by Polyglot members at their annual Christmas party.

FINAL CHRISTMAS PREPARATIONS are taken over by adviser Mrs. Wrucke and Pat Munn.

DILIGENT AND DEPENDABLE, Managing Editor Andrea Wallace and Copy Editor Shirley Carlson carefully plan, make story assignments, and follow through the production of each HI-TRAIL issue.

Columns, editorials, sports, and interviews swarm the HI-TRAIL staff each month. After the reporters and columnists have handed in their assignments, the work begins.

The editors first see that all stories are typed, then they are sent to the press to be set. Soon long columns of stories are ready to be proofread. When this is done, the stories are cut out and arranged on a large piece of paper divided into four parts, representing the four pages of the HI-TRAIL. Having the paper laid out, it is the task of the editors, with the help of the advisor, Mr. Rybak, to write headlines suited to each story. Then the paper is again sent to the press where it is printed and sent back to OHS as the HI-TRAIL.

... set in linotype, it goes into print . . .

... and Friday afternoon it reaches the hands of its readers--the student body.

'Oriole' Rises Out of Organized Confusion

Deadlines! Deadlines! Deadlines! The most widely-used term at ORIOLE staff meetings, deadlines mean late hours of busy work after school. Deadlines mean snatching a few moments to run downtown and eat. Deadlines mean staring out of Room 303 windows--always after dark. Deadlines mean incompletely homework and going into classroom examinations unprepared. Deadlines mean calling on every ounce of creativity one can muster for the sake of a single headline or cutline. Deadlines are those times when certain amounts of ORIOLE pages must be sent in to the company for publication.

In the midst of deadline confusion, innovations are born, are thought out, and become realities in a new yearbook. The introduction of color, increased coverage of organizations and sports, the inclusion of an index, and a stress on informality are only some of the innovations included in the 1964 ORIOLE. The result has been a record of the Osseo school year.

BESIDES WORKING AT SCHOOL, sophomore Shirley Lindberg takes home work which may be completed in "spare time."

AT THE "MAIN STATION," editors Pat Hanson and Jean Southward set up ORIOLE materials amid essentials: paper, pencils, pictures, tape, rubber stamp, and books.

Art Club has made various contributions throughout the school this year. Examples are eye-catching and attractive decorations at the Homecoming, Sadie Hawkins, Holly Hop, and Sno-Days dances.

Meeting every Tuesday, students in this club can take advantage of art room facilities and advice of their adviser, Miss Dallman.

Before Christmas interested members were taught how to make decorations and small gifts. Other evidence of this club's activity is shown in the showcase displays and lunchroom murals.

DIRECTED BY MR. OKERSON, one-act cast members Rick Johnson, Linda Johnson, Mary Santo, Gary Hirmer, John Nelson, Eric Eccleston, Monica Leeper, and Susie Torrey earned an "A" rating in district competition.

Students Exhibit Theatrical Ability

Exchanging identities, pulling curtains, and working with greasy makeup are some of the essential jobs an Understudy or Thespian must perform during the year.

For the first time in fifteen years, one of Osseo's one-act plays received an 'A' rating in the district play contest. Directed by Mr. Okerson, the cast practiced for the contest by performing the play, "I'm a Fool," for a number of English classes.

This year there were eleven Thespians as compared to only one last year. To achieve the distinguishing honor of being a Thespian, an Understudy must earn twenty points. Points are given to the characters in a play. Also, for every five hours of crew or committee work, a member earns one point.

Two melodramas were chosen to be enacted before the school. They are "Out of the Storm" and "Fireman, Save My Child." Andrea Wallace was the student director of "Out of the Storm," while Mr. Okerson directed the other play.

In Aquatennial Parades

Osseo's "A" Band has put in a very busy year. Each member has a year-round job, practicing not only during school hours, but also during the summer. Their hard work paid off last summer as they took first place in both the Saturday and the Torch-Light Minneapolis Aquatennial parades, in addition to being voted parade Grand Champions. The band also received trophies at Wayzata, Columbia Heights, and the State American Legion Parade in Minneapolis.

After their award-winning parades, band members took on the task of preparing intricate maneuvers for half-time shows for both football and basketball, pep fests and yearly concerts. Besides all this rehearsal, each member learns a solo.

The band provides opportunity for any student to pursue his musical talents under expert supervision and training. Students find relaxation, enjoyment, a way to express themselves, and a sense of personal achievement through their music.

HUDDLED TEAMMATES plan strategy in an indoor touch football game.

GAA, the active club for active girls, was really "on the go" this year. Such sports as basketball, bowling, and touch football challenged eager girls.

A concession stand was the main project during the football season. Many girls spent hours toiling in the concession stand and cleaning up the football field. They also made the purchase of refreshments easier by setting up a coffee stand.

A new point system was introduced by GAA officers, in which each girl was required to earn a specific number of points to receive awards and honors at the spring banquet. Contributing many ideas was adviser Mrs. Shallow. President Pat Hanson and Secretary Marsha Christiansen attended a state-wide GAA camp, and there gained new information for a more successful organization. Athletic fun and new-found friends were supplied by GAA this year.

Pep Club is organized to increase school spirit and lead the student body in cheers at sports events. To prepare for this, cheerleaders teach new cheers at their bi-monthly meetings.

As a fall project, Pep Club undertook the tedious task of painting the football bleachers, paying for needed supplies and paint with Pep Club funds. Under the leadership of Mrs. Schalow, they also featured during the year special presentations by athletic coaches.

Harriers Tie for Third in State

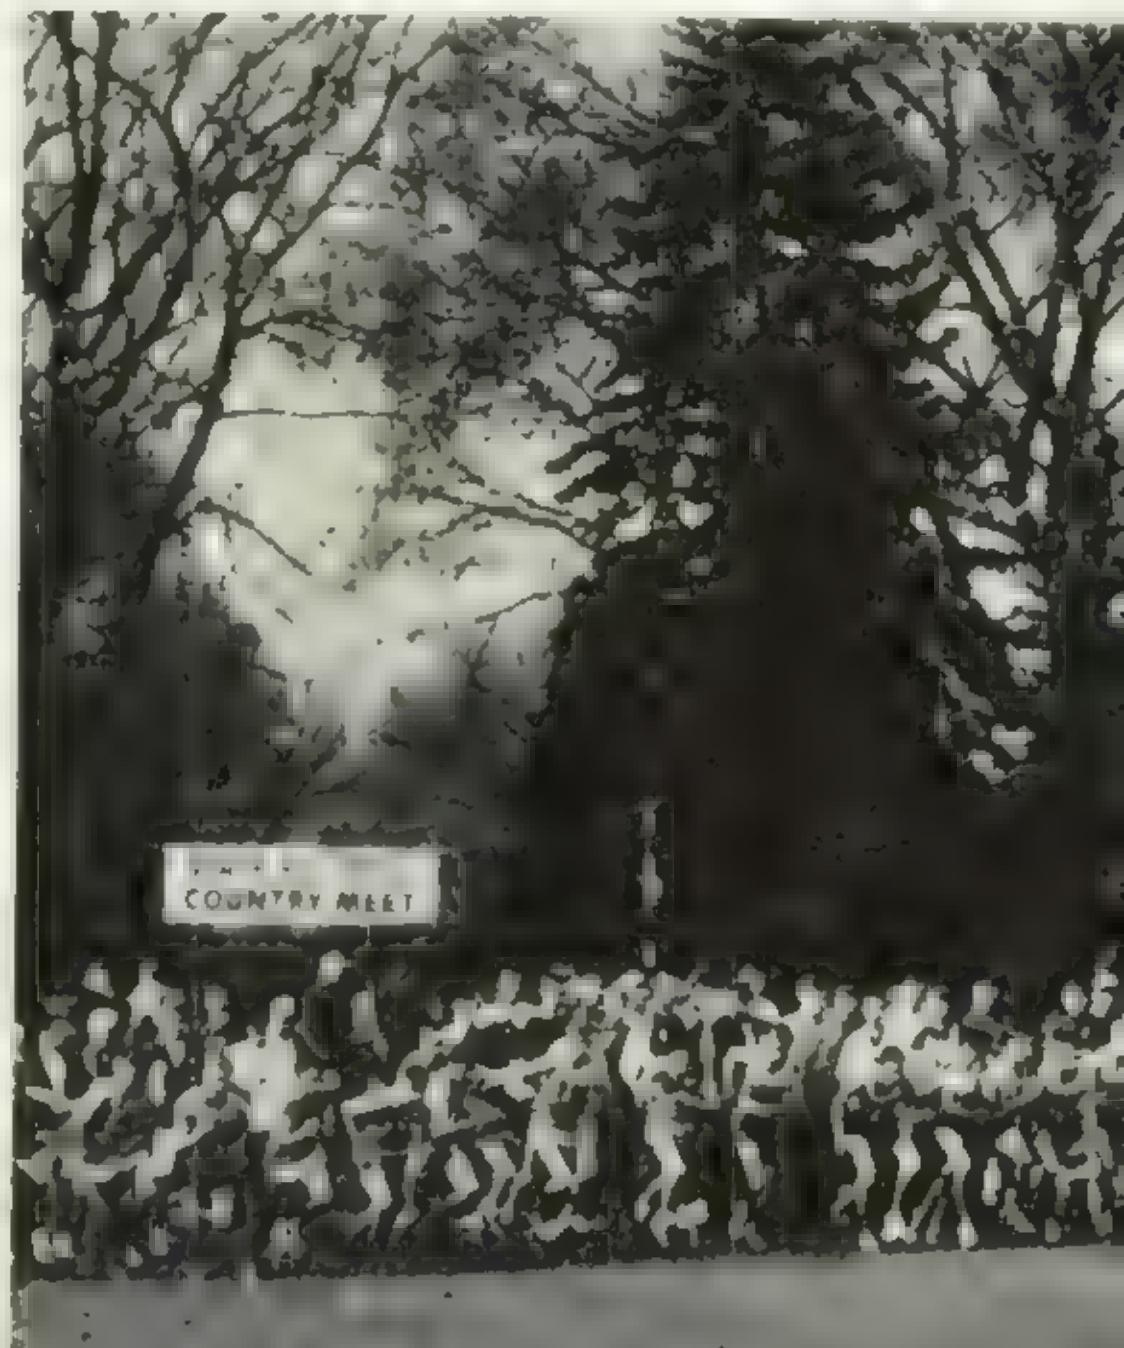

COACH DEANE CONGRATULATES Captain Dick Aften after he places second in state

Nineteen sixty-three proved to be Osseo's best year in Cross Country history, as the team ran undefeated until the state meet. Coach Jim Deane made some fine runners out of a very determined group of boys, as his team ranked as one of the best in Minnesota. Although Osseo had earlier defeated both this year's state champions and the second place teams, they had to settle for a tie for third place in the state.

Led by senior Dick Aften, the first runner to break last year's state record in this record-setting year, Osseo won Skyline Conference, District 16, and Region 4 Championships, plus an all state meet at Duluth. Dick finished first in the conference, district, and region, and second in the State Meet, completing another successful year.

The "B" team also had a highly satisfactory year, winning most of its meets and finishing second only to Anoka in the district. Both "A" and "B" teams showed the desire and will of champions which has helped them to be the Cross Country team of Osseo, considered by many coaches as one of the strongest teams in the state's history.

Skyline Crown

Osseo now has two successive Skyline Conference football championships, after a record-breaking 9-0 season. This year's team was the first in the 39-year history of football at OHS to go through a season without a loss or a tie.

After winning the season's opener to an aggressive Mahtomedi, the team remained enthusiastic for each succeeding game because they wanted a perfect season. Besides winning all their games, the Orioles set a new scoring record of 283 points to the opponents' 44. The nine victories were not only sparked on by certain individuals, but also by the entire team as one "machine."

At the close of the season the boys had won many honors. Seven boys were placed on the All-Conference team: tri-captains, Doug Bryant, Greg Williams, and Wayne Trombley, and teammates Jim Smith, Harlan Heyer, Ron Johnson, and Clark Crawford. Wayne Trombley was also selected by his teammates as the most valuable player.

Osseo will enter the '64 season with a record of 12 straight wins--the team being led by tri-captains Don Larson, Jim Locke, and Don Zachow.

Osseo Cagers Outscore Conference Foes

This year's Oriole basketball team combined a powerfully-balanced scoring attack with successful defensive work, resulting in a successful season. The team set a new season scoring record over the previous record set in 1956. A new school single-game scoring record, led by captain Jerry Gette, was attained by the Orioles in a 111-81 victory over St. Francis.

Coach Story's strategy displayed three basic offensive moves; screening, semifast and fast break. In defensive strategy, the team concentrated on man-to-man, 2-2-1 zone, and 1-3-1 half-court presses. Composed of five seniors, seven juniors, and one sophomore, the '64 team perfected these moves in practice and then won consistently with their successful execution. Their superior court performances added second-place conference honors to Osseo's highly-rated basketball reputation.

COMPETING WRESTLERS meet before matches and are introduced to the audience

Wrestlers Win, Rate High in State

HAVING THE ADVANTAGE, Dave Kiefner and his opponent begin the meet in the 95-pound division.

"Pin him! Pin him!" This is what one would hear if among the wrestling fans present at wrestling meets. Osseo's team, more veteran than last year, proved to be one of the state's best. All team members put forth their utmost effort and lived up to their high state rating.

Wrestling, a sport increasing in popularity, features twelve different weight divisions, ranging from 95 pounds to heavyweight. Scoring is rather easy to understand, with a wrestler getting 5 points for a pin (holding the opponent's shoulders to the mat for 3 seconds), 3 points for attaining the most advantage points, and 2 points for a draw (a tie).

Two senior wrestlers on the team, Captain Clark Crawford and Randy Howard were able to maintain perfect undefeated-untied records. Junior Jim Locke also went undefeated. Although wrestling is basically thought of as a sport for individual competition, all boys depend on each other for bettering both judgement and ability. This teamwork resulted in Coach Meuller's team commendably finishing second in conference and fourth in district competition.

LEARNING NEW TECHNIQUES from coaches Pickett and Branstrom are captains Wally Huber and Tom Taylor.

BEHIND A SPRAY OF ICE, center Joe Howard and wings Wally Huber and Paul Bergerson come to a quick stop

Shows Improvement

Getting off to a slow start, Osseo's hockey team hustled to regain position as determined pucksters fought against older more experienced competitors. The team, made up of eight freshmen, six sophomores, seven juniors, and only three seniors, skated through fourteen conference games and the Brooklyn Center Holiday Christmas Tournament. Freshman Paul Bergerson headed the team in goals and junior Tom Taylor starred in defending our net.

In one of the team's more outstanding games Wally Huber scored a hat trick (three goals in one game) against Centennial, which is considered excellent scoring for one playet in any competition.

Growing enthusiasm and a large return of varsity players point to good prospects for future competition.

GUARDING THE NET, goalie Tom Taylor blocks the puck.

ALERT DEFENSE MEN Terry Niedenfeur and John Anderson await action.

Gymnasts Top Conference Competition

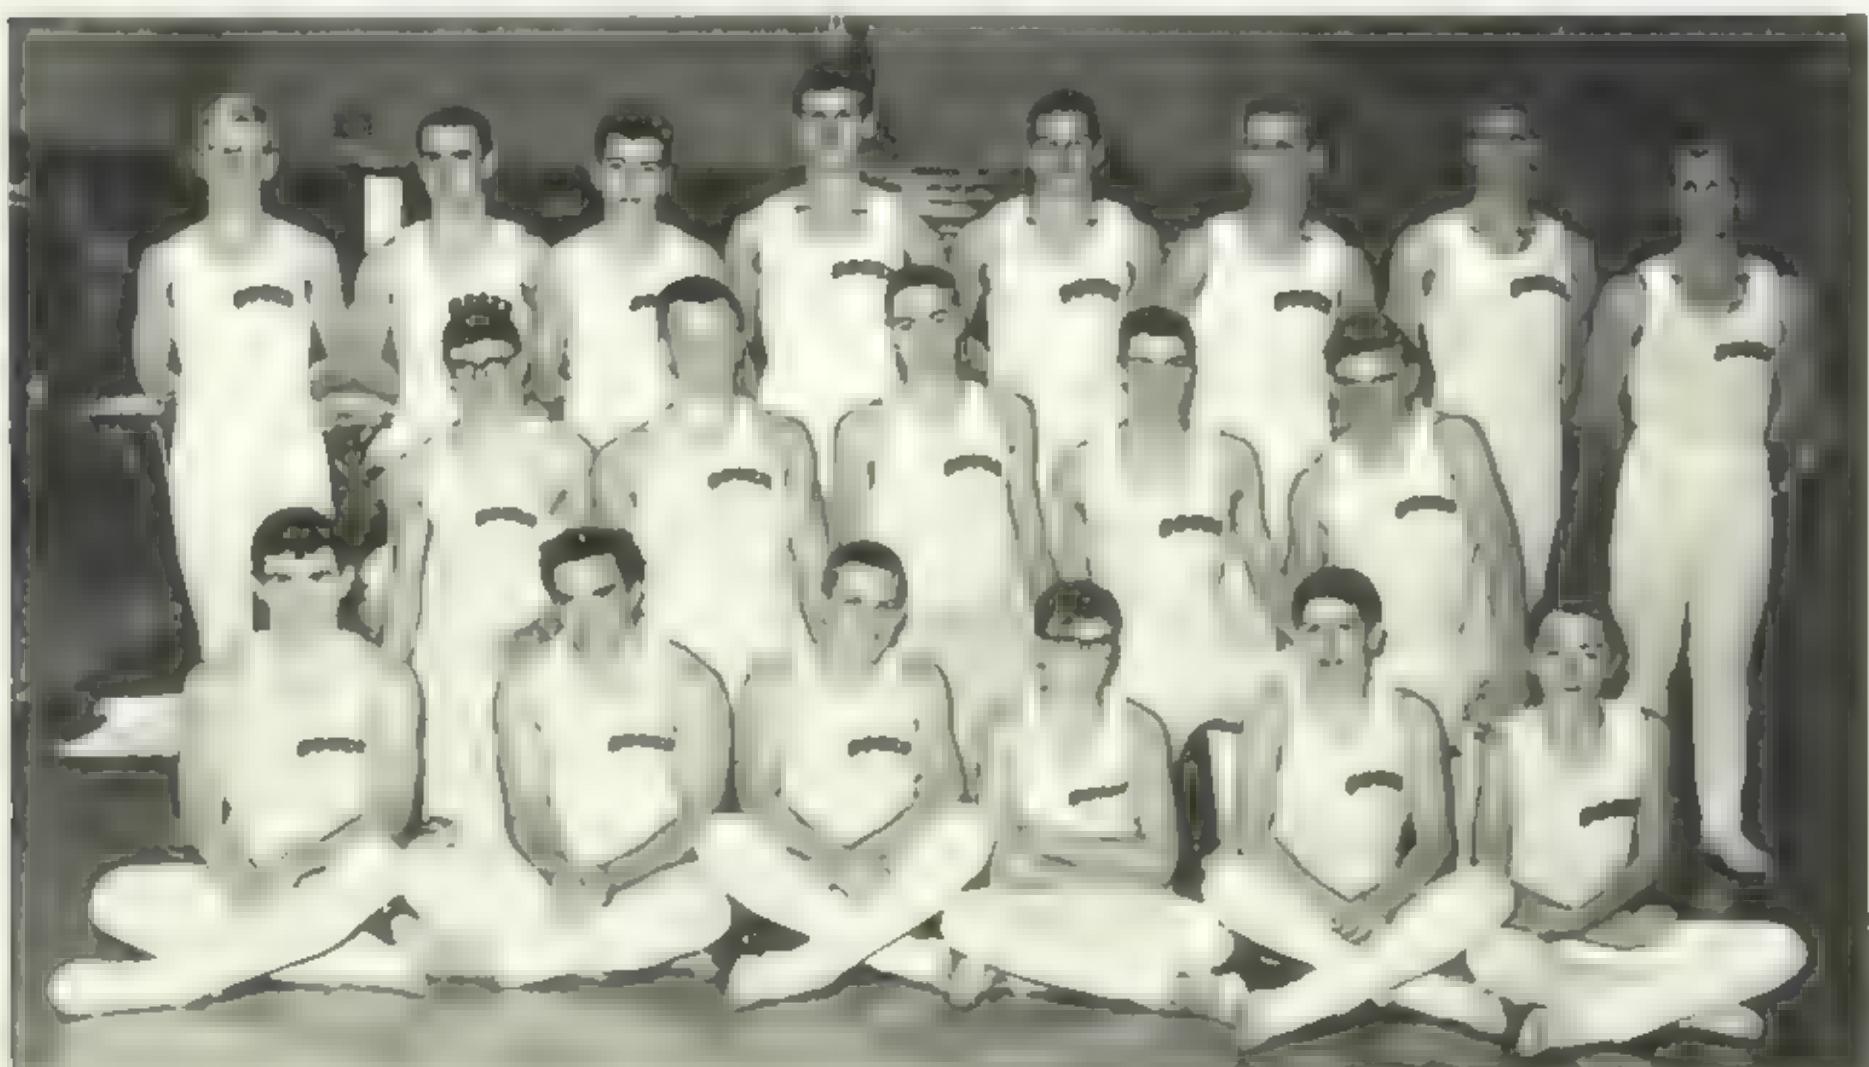

With a comparatively small squad, the Osseo Gymnastics team put on a superior performance this past year in both "A" and "B" Class competition earning top rank in Skyline Conference. Much credit is due to Coach Jackson for his fine work and ability with the team. Gymnastics, a relatively new sport at Osseo, requires both agility and muscular co-ordination to perform well in various events.

Competition this year included the high bar, horse, mats, still rings, parallel bars, and trampoline in both "A" and "B" classes, with the addition of Free Exercise in "A" class. "B" class exercises consist of set exercises, whereas the "A" class exercises are determined by the individual gymnast. Both "A" and "B" class scores are included in the final score of the meet.

FELLOW GYMNASTS "SPOT" for Bob Milne as he performs a back layout on Osseo's new trampoline.

Queen Roselle I

Orioles Victorious in Homecoming 1963

Homecoming 1963 rolled into action September 19 when five queen candidates were announced. Preparations by a busy Senior class were not in vain, and response to the activities by the student body was ample reward.

Festivities began Thursday night, October 3, with the annual pep fest held in the gym. Skits performed by various clubs proved to be "top hat" performances. In the sparkle and glitter of Coronation, following the pep fest, last year's queen, Connie Hodgin, gave up her throne to newly-crowned Queen Roselle Conley.

Hours of tedious work were obvious Friday afternoon, October 4, when classes and clubs displayed floats in the Homecoming parade. First place float, made by senior class members, was a fractured fairy tale on "Little Black Sambo."

Kickoff of the Homecoming game between Osseo and Fridley proved to be the beginning of an exciting and nerve-racking contest. During the first half, Osseo held its own and left at half-time leading by a slim margin of 13 to 12. During the second half, however, our boys came back with new spirit, and final tally showed Osseo over Fridley, 40 to 12.

“Beauty and Beef” Hailed Huge Success

BEFORE ACT ONE, Mr. Okerson gathers his cast together to calm stage fright and to review important cues.

“Beauty and the Beef,” a well-received three-act comedy, was presented on November 15 as Osseo’s first all-school play for the year.

Roselle Conley, as Ginny Allen, portrayed a brilliant but somewhat confused teenager who moves from Chicago to a small southern Minnesota town. Losing out on popularity, she schemes to impress upon her friends that she is only of average intelligence. Ginny’s best friend, played by Sandra Yaeger, aids her. Doug Bryant, the “Beef,” who plays a convincingly dumb football hero, “tutors” Ginny and is partly responsible for turning the state of affairs into a hilarious uproar. Gary Hirmer, acting as Ginny’s younger brother Lester, helped show brotherly love for Ginny. Bill Lepisch and Darlene Ramstad, as Mr. and Mrs. Allen, played typically frustrated parents of teenagers.

After incapacitating the entire football team by giving them “epicac” in cocoa and nearly ruining her family’s reputation, Ginny turns to honesty and happily wins her “Beef.”

UNDER SUSPICION, Ginny attempts desperately to convince the “Beef” that she needs his tutoring.

WITH PARENTAL CONCERN Mr. and Mrs. Allen promise their daughter, Ginny, that they will not reveal her intelligence.

IN THE LIMELIGHT, tired actor Gary Hirmer receives the congratulations of the crowd.

"STRIKING SET," with refreshment provided, becomes fun as well as duty after final performance.

'MARRYIN' SAM,' Mr. Hansen, performs Dogpatch "hitchin'" ceremonies at the Sadie Hawkins dance

Accommodating clubs' desires to sponsor fund-raising dances, Student Council heads the organization of the year's dance schedule.

The annual cheerleading dance began the onrush of groups to their favor to pass-time--"surfin'." Some of the groups who later sponsored dances were choir, A.F.S., G.A.A., Student Council, Pep Club, and the Junior and Senior classes. A welcomed occurrence was the presence of a live band at every dance.

Royalty Reigns at 1964 Sno-Days

A mid-winter festival, the 1964 Sno-Days celebration was held January 16-18. Beginning with a pepfest Thursday afternoon, Sno-Days was well under way by 7:15 that night when emcees Nancy Lindberg and Jim Smith cheerfully greeted an excited, tense coronation audience. Minutes later, crowned by 1963 royalty Jan Dorn and Rick Poss, attractive Laurie Stack and Masculine Doug Bryant left the attractively decorated stage as Sno-Days King and Queen to accept the congratulations of their friends.

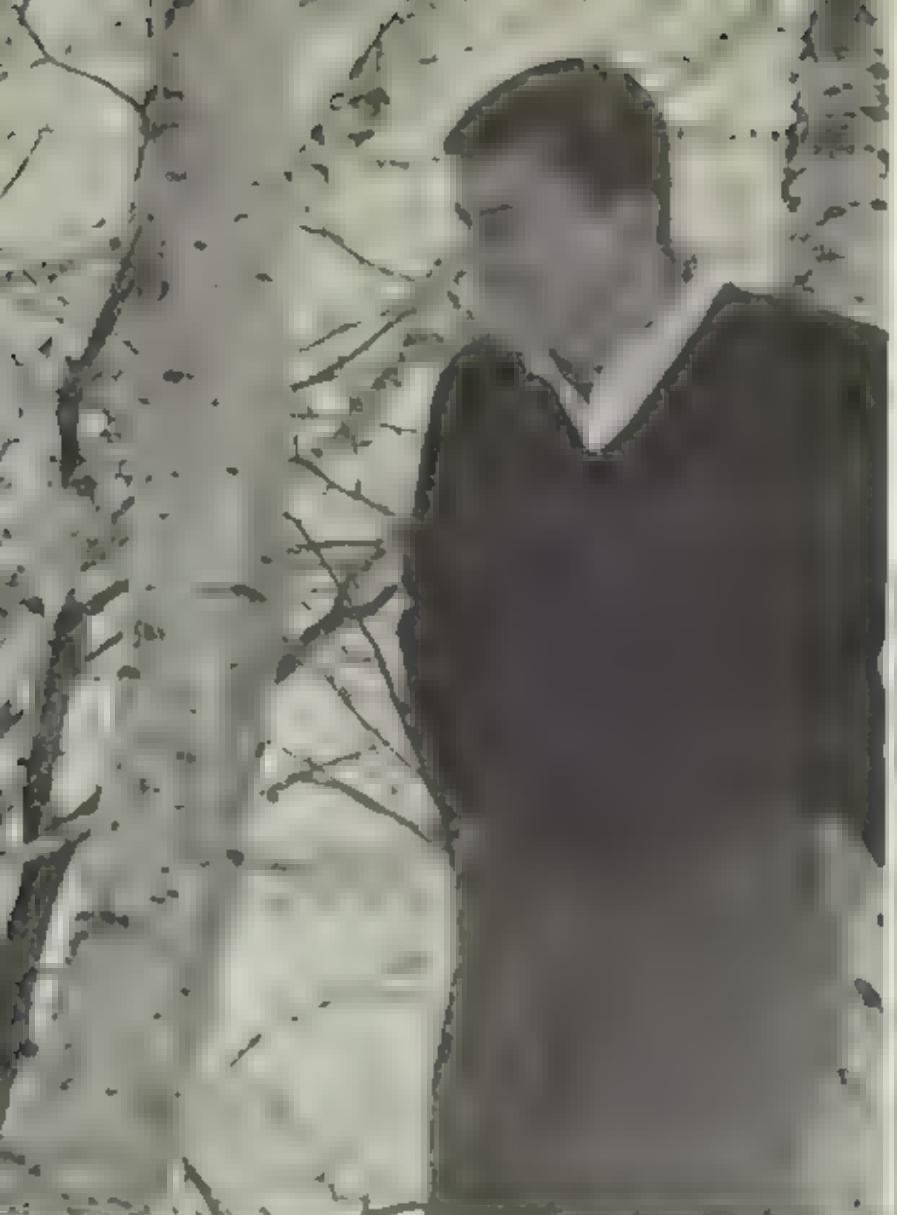

Laurie and Doug went directly from the coronation to the Osseo-Mahntomedi wrestling meet and saw the outstanding squad win by 42-6. Friday activities featured a St. Paul Park-Osseo basketball game, with Osseo emerging victorious again, 64-37.

A Student Council-sponsored Sno-Swing was held Saturday night, a successful culmination to 1964 Sno-Days festivities.

Believe

Bar,

This year has really flown
by. I can't believe that it already is November and I got to know you this year.

Good luck and much success in the future.
